

Variables

Use the following icons:

Make a Variable

set myVariable ▼ to 0

myVariable

change myVariable ▼ by 1

repeat 10

print Hello

set cursor to next row

- Make a variable called count and set its value to 10.
- Print Countdown on one line, then move to the next row (line).
- Using a repeat loop print out the value of count. Each one on a new line.
 - Print out the value of count.
 - Then count change by -1.
- When the counting is done, write on a new line blastoff.
- Make sure you click on the monitor icon to see the results of the console.